Riverbridge

GROWTH FUND

Fact Sheet – September 30, 2026

OBJECTIVE

The fund seeks to provide long-term appreciation.

FUND INFORMATION

The Riverbridge Growth Fund was established on December 31, 2012. It is a diversified growth fund invested in 40-60 companies of all market capitalization sizes. The fund is managed by the Riverbridge Investment Team utilizing our time-tested investment philosophy and disciplines. It is modeled after our All Cap Growth separate account portfolio, which was our flagship investment strategy. The fund seeks to provide long-term appreciation.

INVESTMENT PHILOSOPHY

Riverbridge believes earnings power determines the value of a business, therefore we invest in high quality growth companies that possess the ability to build their earnings power at above-average rates for long periods of time. We define earnings power as companies achieving high returns on invested capital while possessing an enduring strategic advantage in their marketplace.

We build portfolios by identifying and buying well-managed companies we believe can maintain consistent unit growth and strong free cash flow, allowing them to finance their growth using internally generated sources of capital.

DEFINITIONS

Active Share: A measure of the percentage of stock holdings in the portfolio that differs from the benchmark index, calculated by taking the sum of the absolute difference between all the holdings and weights in the portfolio and those of the benchmark holdings and weights and dividing the result by two.

Net Debt/Total Capital: Measurement of a company's financial leverage, calculated by taking the company's interest-bearing debt, subtracting cash, and dividing that total by the company's total capital, which is total debt plus total shareholders' equity.

Turnover Ratio: The percentage of stocks and other assets that have been replaced, calculated by taking the lesser of the purchase or sales and dividing that number by the average monthly net assets. Funds with higher turnover rates are more likely to incur capital gains taxes, which are then distributed to investors.

Weighted Average Market Cap: A determination of a company's value, calculated by multiplying the total number of company stock shares outstanding by the price per share. For a portfolio, the value represents a weighted average based on the stocks held.

DISCLOSURES

Before investing you should carefully consider the Fund's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. This and other information are in the prospectus, a copy of which may be obtained by calling (888)447-4470 or visiting www.riverbridge.com/mutual-funds. Please read the prospectus carefully before you invest. The Fund is available for sale in all states.

The Russell 3000® Growth Index includes the segment of securities within the Russell 3000® Index with higher price-to-book ratios and higher forecasted growth values. The Russell 3000® Index is an unmanaged index measuring the performance of the broad U.S. equity universe. The S&P 500® Index includes 500 industry leading companies measuring the performance of the large-cap U.S. equity universe. An investor cannot invest directly in an index.

Risk Disclosures: Investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. The Fund invests in small and medium size companies. Investments in these companies, especially smaller companies, carry greater risk than is customarily associated with larger companies. The Fund invests in foreign securities through the use of ADRs. Foreign investments involve additional risks, including currency fluctuations, political instability, differences in financial reporting standards and less stringent regulation of securities markets. Emerging market countries involve greater risks, such as immature economic structures, national policies restricting investments by foreigners, and different legal systems. The Fund will typically invest in the securities of fewer issuers. If the Fund's portfolio is overweighted in a sector, any negative development affecting that sector will have a greater impact on the Fund than a fund that is not over weighted in that sector.

Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

The Fund is distributed by IMST Distributors, LLC.
